Day 1

Greece / Athens-Piraeus

Mainland port

City where you can find a Roman tomb in the basement of the clothing store and a metro station where you can walk through the remnants of an ancient necropolis.

Ilias Lalaounis Jewelry Museum

Museum, Shopping

Marvel at the collection of unique precious items inside its own old workshop.

Day 2

Greece / Andros

Island, Greenery

Andros is a rare Cyclades island abundant with water. It nurses dense forests, lemon groves, plane trees and rare flora. Andros accommodates mountain ranges, ravines, valleys and plateaus, and numerous cultural sites like one of the world's most impressive maritime villages, ancient cities, Hellenistic age towers, churches and others.

Hiking trails

Nature

Take worldclass award-winning hiking trails, crisscrossing the entire island. Most of them are old cobblestone main roads for locals.

Day 3

Greece / Skiros

Island

It is said that those who controlled Skyros controlled the trade routes to Asia Minor, mainland Greece and the kingdoms of Italy. Wild ponies are still roaming on plains and traditional craftsmen live on top of hills surrounded by pine trees.

Skiros town

Culture, Traditional

See why Skyros owes its name to its famous Skyrian colourful stones in Skyros town, the island's capital, or Hora (meaning main town in Greek, the naming used on many islands).

Spectate at the Dionysus Festival, when shepherds, dressed as goats, dance around the cobbles of Hora.

Choose among many symbols of Skyros in Hora for your best memory: wood carved furniture, painted ceramics, jasmine smells, forests, or one of many golden sand beaches.

Day 4

Greece / Alonnisos

Island, Greenery, Secluded

Situated in the Aegean Sea, the port of Alonissos is a picturesque destination that attracts tourists looking for a peaceful and authentic Greek island experience. Surrounded by crystal-clear waters and lush vegetation, the port offers a variety of amenities and services to visitors, including boat tours, diving excursions, and traditional tavernas.

Day 5

Greece / Skopelos

Island

Skopelos town alleys mark the scenes of Mamma Mia. This is an incredibly green and lush island with absolutely amazing amounts of vegetation. Skopelos is a very ecological destination. It has no airport and not too many tourists.

Roman Baths

Beach, Historic

Admire the remnants of the Roman Baths in Loutraki.

Day 6

Greece / Skiathos

Island

Land formed by giants, admired by gods and conquered by forests.

The Queen of Sporades remains unspoiled by tourism. Travel around the coast that is nearly all full of beaches. In addition, Mamma Mia movie was shot here.

Lalaria beach

Beach

Pick one of the most famous beaches of the island's 60, Lalaria beach, only accessible from water, with the beautiful rock formation extending into the sea.

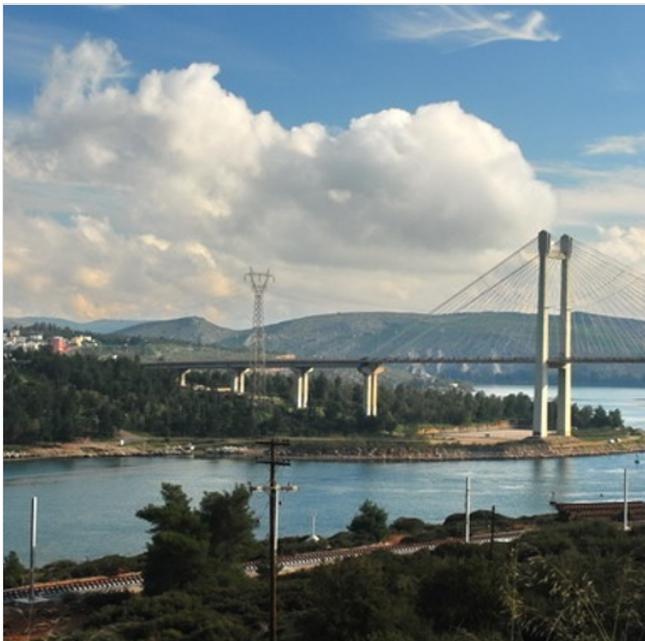

Day 7

Greece / Euboea

Island, City, Greenery

Euboea is the 2d largest island of Greece. It contains not only various landscapes, like mountains, rivers' gorges, waterfalls, wetlands, dense forests, large vineries and endless beaches; but also archeological sites, over 80 monasteries and churches and the biggest SPA town in Greece. Sail here to witness mysteries of Dragon houses, Petrified Forest and changing tides

Euripus Strait

Nature

Watch the rare phenomenon of tide shifting on the bridge over Euripus Strait: every 6 hours waters "freezes" and then changes direction

Day 8

Greece / Athens-Piraeus

Mainland port

City where you can find a Roman tomb in the basement of the clothing store and a metro station where you can walk through the remnants of an ancient necropolis.
