Day 3

Italy / Sorrento

📍 Town, Mainland port

Piazza Tasso was built above one of the many "vallon", or small gorges, which have been carved out over time by streams rushing from the hills behind Sorrento down to the Mediterranean sea. At the very bottom of the gorge, you can still see the ruins of one of the many water-powered mills that once lined these gorges, with a lumberyard adjacent.

Italy / Salerno

◆ Mainland port, Town

Salerno cathedral dates back to the 11th Century. Old Town medieval buildings were built on roman ruins. Castello di Arechi was built in the seventh century.

Day 6

Italy / Amalfi

📍 Popular, Romantic, Village

Arguably the most beautiful 48 kilometers of coastline in Italy. Carved into cliffs that are already cut by deep ravines, the road clings high above the Tyrrhenian Sea in a series of breathtaking views and curves bounded by almost vertical mountains rising on one side and long vertical drops on the other.

Italy / Capri

📍 Island, Secluded

Inside the Gardens of Augustus, drink in the panorama overlooking Marina Piccola and the Faraglioni rock formations. Stop in at the Charterhouse of San Giacomo or walk uphill to the Roman ruins of Villa Jovis, where the ancient emperor Tiberio would take a break from Rome.
