

Split — Dubrovnik on Ambassador

MS Ambassador boasts all the features of the luxury yacht, that will satisfy your refined cruise expectations. However, this luxurious small cruise ship has more than just superb equipment, great cabins, elegant decks, and all the other nice technical details. Fast and versatile, this ship will take you where the bigger vessels can't go, from historic towns to secluded beaches. Its very special South Adriatic cruise itinerary includes a visit to spectacular Biševo Cave. If you're looking for the perfect island-hopping cruise in Croatia choose MS Ambassador because it offers it all: luxury, safety, intimacy and excitement.

- Regions / Countries: Croatia
- Duration: 8 Days / 7 Nights
- Tags: Mainland port, Popular, City, Island, Town, Greenery, Secluded
- URL: <https://embarq.travel/boats/ambassador/split-dubrovnik-on-ambassador/>

Day 1

Croatia / Split

Mainland port, Popular, City

The city is best known for the ruins of the Palace of Diocletian. A tree-lined promenade now keeps the Adriatic from lapping against the south walls of the Old Town as it once did.

Day 2

Croatia / Trogir

Island, Mainland port, Town

Trogir was founded by the Greek colonists as a major port in the 3rd century BC and was then known under the name of Tragurion. The town has flourished in the 13-15 centuries. Its gorgeous historic center with its elegant Baroque and Renaissance facades, palaces and Romanesque churches looks more like an outdoor museum than a real town and was rightfully acknowledged by UNESCO a World Heritage Site. Trogir is one of the most beautiful towns and islands in the whole world and a true jewel for a curious traveler.

Day 3

Croatia / Brač-Bol

Greenery, Island, Secluded, Town

Brač-Bol port in Croatia is a hidden gem for those seeking a unique and authentic travel experience. Located on the island of Brač, this charming port is surrounded by crystal-clear waters and boasts breathtaking views. Visitors can indulge in water sports, explore hidden coves, or simply relax on the pristine beaches. With its rich cultural heritage and picturesque streets, Brač-Bol is a must-visit destination for those seeking an escape from the typical tourist crowds.

Croatia / Vis

Island, Greenery, Town

The charming port of Vis is a hidden gem on the Croatian coast, boasting crystal clear waters and stunning natural scenery. Steeped in history, the town's ancient streets are home to quaint cafes, art galleries and boutique shops. Visitors can explore the island's many beautiful beaches and coves, or delve into its fascinating past by visiting the historic Fort George. With a lively nightlife scene and an array of delicious local cuisine, Vis offers something for everyone, making it the perfect stop on any Croatian cruise itinerary.

Day 4

Croatia / Bishevo

Description: Bishevo is a small port town located in the Adriatic Sea, known for its stunning natural beauty. The town is surrounded by crystal clear waters, making it a great destination for swimming and diving. One of the most popular attractions in Bishevo is the Blue Cave, a stunning natural wonder that glows with a bright blue light. Visitors can take a boat tour to explore the cave and witness its ethereal beauty. In addition to the Blue Cave, Bishevo is also home to a number of beautiful beaches, including Stiniva Beach, which was voted the best beach in Europe in 2016.

Croatia / Hvar

Greenery, Popular, Town, Island

It gets almost 2,800 hours of sunshine per year. There is however enough rain to keep the island green and to maintain the beautiful fields of lavender, rosemary, sage, marjoram and thyme and the carefully cultivated vineyards.

Day 5

Croatia / Korcula

Island, Popular, Town

Korčula Old Town, also known as mini Dubrovnik, is the place where Marco Polo is believed to be born.

Day 6

Croatia / Mljet

Island, Greenery, Secluded

Mljet is a majestic picturesque island covered with green pine forests in the southern part of Dalmatia region of Croatia and is tightly nicknamed the "Green Island". Despite its tranquil magic and untouched nature Mljet is not among the list of the most popular travel destinations. The island has rich history and was a home to many different cultures. Mljet was known in the ancient Greek world under the name of Melita, which means honey. The western part of the island is a National Park and from the times the beauty of this alluring island had captivated Odysseus, its charm remains undisputable. Relish it's rustic peaceful atmosphere and feel the time slowing down in Mljet.

Croatia / Slano

Nestled on the Dalmatian coast, the small port of Slano exudes an unspoiled charm that's hard to resist. With its crystal-clear waters and stunning views of the Elaphiti Islands, this tranquil destination is the perfect spot to unwind and soak up the Mediterranean sun. Visitors can explore the old town's narrow streets, lined with charming stone houses and historic churches. For those seeking adventure, a hike to the nearby hilltop fortress is a must-do, offering breathtaking panoramic views of the bay. Don't miss the opportunity to savor some of the freshest seafood in the region, caught daily by the local fishermen.

Day 7

Croatia / Dubrovnik

Mainland port, Popular

The most visited place in Croatia. The background in many episodes of the TV series Game of Thrones and in Star Wars, Episode VIII: The Last Jedi.

Day 8

Croatia / Dubrovnik

Mainland port, Popular

The most visited place in Croatia. The background in many episodes of the TV series Game of Thrones and in Star Wars, Episode VIII: The Last Jedi.

