Croatia / Mljet

Island, Greenery, Secluded

Mljet is a majestic picturesque island covered with green pine forests in the southern part of Dalmatia region of Croatia and is tightly nicknamed the "Green Island". Despite its tranquil magic and untouched nature Mljet is not among the list of the most popular travel destinations. The island has rich history and was a home to many different cultures. Mljet was known in the ancient Greek world under the name of Melita, which means honey. The western part of the island is a National Park and from the times the beauty of this alluring island had captivated Odysseus, its charm remains undisputable. Relish it's rustic peaceful atmosphere and feel the time slowing down in Mljet.

Day 4

Croatia / Vis

Island, Greenery, Town

The charming port of Vis is a hidden gem on the Croatian coast, boasting crystal clear waters and stunning natural scenery. Steeped in history, the town's ancient streets are home to quaint cafes, art galleries and boutique shops. Visitors can explore the island's many beautiful beaches and coves, or delve into its fascinating past by visiting the historic Fort George. With a lively nightlife scene and an array of delicious local cuisine, Vis offers something for everyone, making it the perfect stop on any Croatian cruise itinerary.

Fisherman's Museum

The Fisherman's Museum in Vis Town is a small, but fascinating museum that provides an insight into the island's traditional fishing industry. The museum is housed in a 16th-century tower and displays tools, equipment, and artifacts used by fishermen in the past.

Vis island, fisherman's viilage and military tour

Culture

Being an important strategic military stronghold for a long time, Vis was spared the excessive tourist development and thus retained its unspoilt beaches, ecological agriculture and traditional architecture. Enjoy afternoon, exploring the town of Vis, its picturesque stone streets, pristine beaches and fine taverns. For all who are interested can opt for a military tour and Vis Island excursion, ending in Komiza, stunning fishermen's village to have dinner in one of cosy restaurants.

Croatia / Bishevo

Description: Bishevo is a small port town located in the Adriatic Sea, known for its stunning natural beauty. The town is surrounded by crystal clear waters, making it a great destination for swimming and diving. One of the most popular attractions in Bishevo is the Blue Cave, a stunning natural wonder that glows with a bright blue light. Visitors can take a boat tour to explore the cave and witness its ethereal beauty. In addition to the Blue Cave, Bishevo is also home to a number of beautiful beaches, including Stiniva Beach, which was voted the best beach in Europe in 2016.

Blue Cave

Located on the east side of the island of Bishevo, the Blue Cave is a natural wonder that is known for its crystal-clear blue water and stunning rock formations. Visitors can take a small boat tour into the cave to see the shimmering blue light that reflects off the walls, creating a magical atmosphere.

Day 5

Croatia / Hvar

It gets almost 2,800 hours of sunshine per year. There is however enough rain to keep the island green and to maintain the beautiful fields of lavender, rosemary, sage, marjoram and thyme and the carefully cultivated vineyards.

Hvar history and culture excursion

Architecture, Culture

Hvar is one of the country's most attractive tourist destinations and a meeting point of international jetsetters. Upon our arrival to Hvar, a local English speaking guide can walk you through this unique city, introducing you to its millennia-long history, culture and a way of life.

Day 6

Croatia / Trogir

Island, Mainland port, Town

Trogir was founded by the Greek colonists as a major port in the 3rd century BC and was then known under the name of Tragurion. The town has flourished in the 13-15 centuries. Its gorgeous historic center with its elegant Baroque and Renaissance facades, palaces and Romanesque churches looks more like an outdoor museum than a real town and was rightfully acknowledged by UNESCO a World Heritage Site. Trogir is one of the most beautiful towns and islands in the whole world and a true jewel for a curious traveler.

Trogir town excursion

Architecture, Historic, Culture

This town – museum is literally packed with palaces, churches, monasteries and towers, the main attraction being the Cathedral of St. Lawrence, probably the finest example of sacral architecture in Croatia.

Day 7

Croatia / Split

Mainland port, Popular, City

The city is best known for the ruins of the Palace of Diocletian. A tree-lined promenade now keeps the Adriatic from lapping against the south walls of the Old Town as it once did.

Diocletian's Palace Underground

While most tourists visit the Diocletian's Palace in Split, many don't know about the underground tunnels and rooms that lie beneath the palace. These underground spaces were once used for storage and protection during times of war. You can take a guided tour to learn more about the history of the palace and the city.
