Day 1

Turkey / Bodrum

Mainland port, Popular, City

One of the biggest resorts in Turkey with city vibes and activities for the whole day.

Day 2

Turkey / Palamutbükü

Village

Palamutbükü is a stunning seaside escape on the Datça Peninsula, famous for its crystal-clear waters and long, pebbly beach. This hidden paradise offers a peaceful alternative to crowded tourist spots, where visitors can enjoy fresh seafood in beachfront tavernas, explore olive groves, and swim in the calm Aegean waters. The idyllic scenery and relaxed atmosphere make it a must-visit for those looking to unwind.

Day 3

Turkey / Aktur Cove

Village

Aktur, located between Datça and Marmaris, is a picturesque bay known for its lush pine forests, sandy beaches, and calm waters. The area's well-maintained facilities and gentle sea make it ideal for families and nature lovers. With excellent conditions for swimming, kayaking, and windsurfing, Aktur is a great place to enjoy outdoor adventures while soaking in the beauty of the Turkish coast.

Turkey / Bencil Cove

Seaside, Secluded, Discovery

Bencik Bay is a narrow, fjord-like inlet offering one of the most unique landscapes on the Turkish coastline. Nestled between the Datça and Bozburun peninsulas, this sheltered bay provides a calm anchorage with stunning natural surroundings. Ideal for hiking, swimming, and picnicking, Bencik is a quiet escape where you can experience the tranquility of unspoiled nature.

Day 4

Turkey / Emel Sayın Bay

Discovery, Secluded, Seaside

Named after the famous Turkish singer Emel Sayın, otherwise known as Inbuku, this serene bay is known for its calm, crystal-clear waters and breathtaking views. A favorite among sailors, it's a perfect spot for a relaxing swim or an overnight anchorage under the stars. The peaceful ambiance and untouched beauty make it a hidden gem along the Bozburun coastline.

Turkey / Orhaniye

Mainland port, Village

Orhaniye is a charming bay famous for Kızkumu Beach, a natural sandbar that extends into the sea, allowing visitors to seemingly walk on water. The bay is surrounded by lush green hills and features a well-protected marina, making it a popular stop for sailors. The warm hospitality of the locals, excellent seafood, and mesmerizing scenery make Orhaniye a must-visit destination.

Turkey / Selimiye

Mainland port, Town

Selimiye Port in Turkey is a picturesque port town situated in the Marmaris district of Mugla Province. With its stunning views of the Mediterranean Sea, traditional architecture, and a variety of restaurants, bars, and shops, it's the perfect place to relax and enjoy the beauty of the Turkish Riviera. From taking in the breathtaking views from the port to exploring the many fascinating historical sites, Selimiye Port has something for everyone.

Day 5

Turkey / Dirsekbükü

Secluded

Dirsekbükü is a stunning anchorage located between Datça and Bozburun, offering deep blue waters and breathtaking scenery. Its remote location makes it an ideal stop for yachts looking for a quiet bay to spend the night. The calm, sheltered waters and excellent swimming conditions make Dirsekbükü a favorite for those seeking solitude in nature.

Turkey / Bozburun

Village, Mainland port

Port Bozburun, in southwestern Turkey, is a stunningly beautiful place. From its cobblestone streets lined with vibrant bazaars to its stunning azure waters and lush greenery. Visitors can explore the ruins of ancient Greek and Roman settlements, take a boat tour of the harbor and enjoy some of the region's freshest seafood. With its stunning views and exciting activities, Port Bozburun is a must-see destination.

Day 6

Turkey / Datca

Mainland port, Town

Located on the southern coast of Turkey, Datca is a paradise of natural beauty, offering breathtaking views of the Aegean Sea and a range of activities to enjoy. From its picturesque beaches and coves to its ancient ruins, the area is rich in history and culture. For those looking to explore, there are plenty of historical sites, attractions and activities to enjoy, from kayaking and sailing to hiking and swimming. For a truly unique experience, take a boat trip to the hidden bays and coves that line the coastline or explore the area's many villages and towns.

Turkey / Knidos

Discovery, Secluded

At the tip of the Datça Peninsula, Knidos is an awe-inspiring archaeological site where history meets breathtaking scenery. Once a powerful city of the ancient world, Knidos is now a collection of well-preserved ruins, including a grand amphitheater, a temple dedicated to Aphrodite, and remnants of an ancient harbor. The turquoise waters surrounding the site make for a stunning backdrop, perfect for those arriving by boat. A visit to Knidos is a step back in time, where myths and history blend seamlessly with nature’s beauty.

Day 7

Turkey / Poyraz Bay - Haraada Island

Secluded, Seaside

Poyraz Harbor, located on the Black Island, or Karaada, is one of Bodrum's best diving and snorkeling spots. The underwater world here is full of colorful marine life, caves, and rock formations, making it a paradise for underwater explorers. The crystal-clear waters and sheltered bay also make it a great place for a peaceful swim or a scenic anchorage.

Turkey / Bodrum

Mainland port, Popular, City

One of the biggest resorts in Turkey with city vibes and activities for the whole day.
