Panama / San Blas Islands

DAY 8: SAN BLAS ISLANDS (Panama)

In the Caribbean Sea, facing Panama, the San Blas archipelago brings together nearly 400 coral islets, of which only 60 are inhabited. Confidential and preserved from tourism, these islands with their unspoiled nature are administered by the indigenous population, the Kuna Indians. Living from hunting, fishing and coconut cultivation, the Kunas form a matriarchal society that has had autonomous status since 1925. Heavenly beaches, coconut trees and encounters with the local population form the authentic picture of the San Blas Islands. Free discovery. Breakfast, lunch and dinner on board.

Day 9

Panama / Panama Canal

Located at the Atlantic entrance to the Panama Canal, Colon port is a vital hub for global trade. As the largest port in Panama, it handles a significant amount of cargo, including containers, vehicles, and bulk cargo. With modern facilities and a strategic location, Colon port is a gateway to the Americas, providing efficient access to both the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans.

DAY 9: COLON AND CROSSING OF THE PANAMA CANAL

The port of Colon marks the entrance to the Panama Canal, on the Caribbean side. An extraordinary 80 km long engineering work, a technical feat with its gigantic locks, incredible financing... the Panama Canal tells the political, diplomatic, commercial and technological history of the 20th century. Built by the Americans after an unfortunate French attempt, the Panama Canal has linked the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans since 1914, revolutionizing world maritime trade. Free time or participation in optional excursions. Departure of the World Explorer in the early afternoon towards the famous Panama Canal. Passage of the Gatun lock and navigation on the eponymous lake. Ships use this artificial lake every day for more than 24 km before reaching the next lock in San Pedro to then join the Pacific Ocean. Breakfast, lunch and dinner on board.

EXCURSION 11 • DISCOVERY OF PANAMA CITY

Departure by coach from Colon to Panama City. Panoramic discovery of the modern city before reaching the Casco Viejo, the colonial historic center classified as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.
