100 years of family and regional traditions. Company includes a distillery with traditional spirits. Wines of each type, each with special distinct character.

Day 4

Greece / Skiros

Island

It is said that those who controlled Skyros controlled the trade routes to Asia Minor, mainland Greece and the kingdoms of Italy. Wild ponies are still roaming on plains and traditional craftsmen live on top of hills surrounded by pine trees.

Day 5

Greece / Tinos

Island

Tinos is the largest pilgrimage center in Greece for both Orthodox and Catholics. The island is known for its 80 or so windmills, about 1000 dovecotes, Venetian fortifications at the mountain, marble carving and famous sculptors and painters. It is charmingly old-fashioned and handicraft.

Volacus Wine

Wine

Grapes of the vineyard are planted between the rocks. Lunar landscape with volcanoes. Malagouzia and Assirtyko grape varieties. Focus is on white wines.

Day 6

Greece / Paros-Antiparos

Island

"Anti" translates in Greek not as negation but as the "opposite" of something. Islands of Paros and Antiparos lie opposite each other and are separated by a narrow strait. It is said they are the most Aegean islands among all of the Aegean. Come and see yourself why that is the case.

Moraitis Winery

Wine

Founded in 1910, the winery is located by the beach. The property has a large line of local and classical wines, which have Protected Designation of Origin status.

Day 7

Greece / Serifos

Island, Secluded

Serifos is not a very touristy island that boasts comfortable soft sand beaches, enchanting capital Hora and wild terrains.

Chrysoloras Winery

Wine

Founder lived on the island his entire life. The expression of traditionally farmed rare and local Cycladic varieties. Assyrtiko, Mandilari, Serifiotiko, Psarosyriko, Monemvasia, Roditis, Platiraho, Savatiano. Pure expression of raw power, with chunky textures.

Day 8

Greece / Athens-Piraeus

Mainland port

City where you can find a Roman tomb in the basement of the clothing store and a metro station where you can walk through the remnants of an ancient necropolis.

Strofilia Wines
