Day 1

Turkey / Bodrum

Mainland port, Popular, City

One of the biggest resorts in Turkey with city vibes and activities for the whole day.

Day 2

□

Turkey / Orak Island

Island, Secluded

A jewel of the Aegean, Orak Island is a dream for snorkelers and divers, thanks to its incredibly clear turquoise waters and rich marine life. Just a short boat ride from Bodrum, this uninhabited island offers secluded beaches, calm coves, and spectacular underwater visibility. It's a top destination for day trips and yacht charters, where visitors can swim, sunbathe, and enjoy the untouched natural beauty of the Turkish coast.

Turkey / Çökertme

Mainland port, Village

Tucked along the Gökova Gulf, Çökertme is a charming coastal village where sailors and travelers can experience authentic Turkish hospitality. This peaceful anchorage is famous for its warm-hearted locals, fresh seafood, and stunning sunsets. The bay is well-sheltered, making it an ideal overnight stop for yachts. Wander along the shore, enjoy a delicious meal at a waterfront taverna, or simply relax in this tranquil corner of paradise.

Day 3

Turkey / Seven Islands \(Küfre/Long Port\)

Secluded

Seven Islands is a collection of secluded bays and islets offering a perfect retreat for sailors and nature enthusiasts. The calm waters of Küfre Bay provide excellent shelter for anchorage, while Long Port offers a scenic setting with pine-clad hills reaching the sea. The area is ideal for kayaking, snorkeling, and exploring untouched coves. If you seek solitude and raw natural beauty, this is a must-visit destination.

□

Turkey / Ayinda Bay

Greenery, Secluded

Ayinda Bay is a quiet, untouched cove where turquoise waters meet lush green hills. The bay's calm, crystal-clear sea makes it perfect for swimming and snorkeling. Ideal for those looking to escape the hustle and bustle, Ayinda is a hidden paradise where you can anchor your boat, enjoy a peaceful sunset, and fall asleep under a sky full of stars.

Day 4

Turkey / Kleopatra island

Island, Secluded, Discovery

Sedir Island, better known as Kleopatra Island, is famous for its fine golden sand, which, according to legend, was imported from Egypt for Cleopatra herself. The island boasts ancient ruins, including a well-preserved amphitheater and remnants of a Roman settlement. The stunning beach, combined with its historical significance and mesmerizing blue waters, makes it one of the most unique spots in the Aegean.

Turkey / Karaca

Karaca Port is a stunning city in Turkey with a plethora of sights and activities to explore. From ancient ruins to crystal-clear beaches, the city has something for everyone. Visitors are awestruck by the sweeping views of the majestic Mediterranean Sea and the vibrant blue-tiled rooftops of the city. There are plenty of restaurants and shops to explore, and the city's unique mix of cultures and religions make it a truly special place to visit.

Day 5

□

Turkey / Långözü Bay

Greenery

Långözü Bay is a stunning anchorage surrounded by dense pine forests, making it one of the most peaceful and beautiful bays in the Gökova Gulf. The bay is well protected from winds, creating a perfect haven for sailors. Visitors can take a walk through the enchanting forest, enjoy a meal at the rustic "Ali Baba's Café," or simply bask in the serenity of this hidden paradise.

Turkey / Tuzla Bay

Secluded, Discovery, Greenery

Tuzla Bay is a fascinating mix of salt marshes, shallow waters, and stunning coastal scenery. Known for its flamingos and diverse birdlife, it's a paradise for nature lovers. The area also features excellent seafood restaurants serving locally caught fish. Whether you're enjoying the wildlife or indulging in a delicious meal, Tuzla Bay offers a unique experience on the Turkish coastline.

Day 6

Turkey / Kargili Bay

Greenery, Discovery, Secluded

Kargılı Bay is a small, serene cove offering calm waters and a peaceful anchorage. Ideal for a lunch stop or a short swim, the bay is surrounded by rugged hills and has a relaxed, untouched feel. It's an excellent choice for those looking to escape the busier parts of the Bodrum Peninsula and enjoy nature in its purest form.

Turkey / Kisebükü Bay

Seaside, Secluded

Kisebükü is a breathtaking bay where history and nature coexist. The area is home to the ruins of a Byzantine monastery, adding a mystical touch to its already stunning scenery. The bay's clear waters and sandy beaches make it a favorite among sailors. Whether exploring the ruins or simply floating in the calm sea, Kisebükü is a must-visit stop on any Blue Cruise route.

Day 7

Turkey / Pabuçburnu Bay

Seaside, Secluded

Pabuçburnu, meaning "Shoe Cape," is a peaceful anchorage near Bodrum, known for its deep blue waters and gentle sea breezes. This quiet spot is perfect for swimming and relaxing, away from the crowds. It's also a great location for a picnic on board while enjoying panoramic views of the Aegean coastline.

Turkey / Yalçıftlık Bay

Greenery, Discovery, Seaside, Secluded

Located just outside Bodrum, Yalçıftlık offers a glimpse into traditional Turkish coastal life. Unlike the bustling resorts of Bodrum, this area remains authentic, with local farms, pristine beaches, and a calm atmosphere. Whether you're enjoying a beachside meal, exploring the surrounding hills, or simply taking in the natural beauty, Yalçıftlık is a wonderful escape from modern-day distractions.

Day 8

Turkey / Bodrum
