

Cruise the Splendors of Laos, from Chiang Rai to Vientiane

Découvrir le Triangle d'or, cette mythique région à cheval entre la Thaïlande, le Laos et la Birmanie, conduit naturellement sur le Mékong qui en délimite la frontière. Ce chemin qu'empruntèrent les minorités du Laos en quête d'un refuge pour ceux que l'histoire a contraint de s'exiler, c'est celui que vous parcourrez à bord du moderne et confortable R/V Sabaidee Pandaw. À travers les montagnes parsemées de rizières, de champs de thé et de cet opium qui lui valut une réputation sulfureuse, vous irez à la rencontre d'une étonnante diversité ethnique : mélange de costumes, d'architectures, d'artisanats et de saveurs. Parmi les joyaux de cette région, Luang Prabang, située sur les rives du Mékong, dégage une atmosphère religieuse et sereine avec ses temples, ses bonzes, sa végétation verdoyante et son architecture colorée. En navigant sur le fleuve, d'autres merveilles s'offrent aux voyageurs : les magnifiques cascades en terrasses turquoise de Kuang Si, les villages typiques et accueillants au détour d'un méandre, ainsi que Vientiane, la capitale de ce merveilleux pays qu'est le Laos.
